

Name: _____

Use the clues below to test your observation skills. Good Luck!

Across

- 3. Foam in water can be natural or the result of _____.
- 4. Surfaces that do not allow rain water to soak in are _____.
- 7. Oftentimes streams are modified into concrete _____ to prevent flooding.
- 8. Bare soil and collapsed trees are signs of _____.
- 10. By observing _____ before monitoring, we can explain some measurements.
- 11. The presence of diverse _____ is an indicator of clean water.
- 12. Stream banks with artificial coverings are designed to prevent erosion, but do not create a good _____.
- 15. Green water may be a sign of an _____. (2 words)
- 18. When sediment falls into the stream, it can smother creatures living on the _____. (2 words)
- 19. When too much water runs off paved surfaces into the stream, the stream may become _____.
- 20. Tracing waterbodies to their _____ reveals what may have polluted the water upstream.

Down

- 1. Insects and other small organisms such as clams, mussels, snails, worms, and crayfish are _____.
- 2. Rocks in streams have a _____ affect on macroinvertebrate populations.
- 5. Pesticide pollution might be due to _____ neighboring the waterbody.
- 6. Trees and vegetation provide _____ from pollutants.
- 9. Colorful reflections in water are a sign of _____.
- 13. _____ never belongs in a waterbody.
- 14. A strong _____ may indicate sewage pollution.
- 16. Bushes alongside waterbodies create a _____ area.
- 17. Orange water may be a sign of nearby _____.

